Thank You, Mr. Mueller

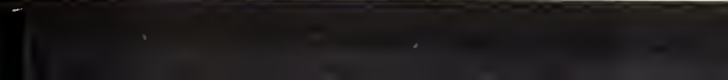

Freshman year we entered C-118 not knowing what to expect. From that moment on and for the next four years, Mr. Max Mueller dedicated much of his time showing us the ropes of how a yearbook should be organized. To raise money for the yearbook, Mr. Mueller, enthusiastically helped us organize a few dances. Although our dances weren't as profitable as we had hoped, we had fun planning them and a good time was had by all. Through thick and thin, he was always there to help us along. On behalf of the Class of 1999, we would like to express our sincere gratitude to Mr. Mueller for all he has done.

Sincerely,
The Class of 1999 Editors:
Sara Kennedy
Julie Tiberii
Julie Wetherbee

Mr. Raymond Whipple

Mr. Whipple has been teaching at N.R.H.S. for 39 years, with the exception of the year 1960 when he took a year off to attain his master's degree at Penn State. Mr. Whipple is an excellent teacher, you can always count on his great sense of humor to brighten up your day. He is regularly there to lend a helping hand. Even with his busy schedule as chairperson of the math department he still has time for his students. Whether it be a Monday or a Friday, if a student wished to stay after school, Mr. Whipple wouldn't think twice about being there to accommodate their needs. When the need for a principal arose, Mr. Whipple volunteered and assumed the position of acting principal. Although the responsibilities of principal took up much of his time, he still set time aside to help his students. As acting principal he was firm but fair. Mr. Whipple is a lifelong learner so we know he will keep busy after his retirement. His plans include spending time with his family and grandchildren as well as at his house in Maine. Mr. Whipple will be missed by all and we wish him the best of luck with all he plans to do.

Mrs. Margot Girodet

Mrs. Girodet has taught at N.R.H.S. since 1968. She was adored by, not only the faculty members, but every one of her students. She never failed to make the Spanish and French languages intriguing and exciting to learn. Mrs. Girodet's presence always brought a smile and her extraordinary teaching abilities have made an indelible mark on all the lives that she has touched. After her many years of incredible work here at N.R.H.S., she plans to travel and spend much time with her family. Thank you for many wonderful years and good-luck with all you do.

Mr. John Havice

For the past 33 years Mr. Havice has contributed his time and knowledge to his history and social studies students at N.R.H.S. The faculty as well as the students have enjoyed working with him. He was always willing to lend a helping hand to his students and always made class time interesting. After retirement, Mr. Havice plans to travel, spend fun time with his grandsons, enjoy his hobbies, and perhaps write a book about the gunboat his great-grandfather served on during the Civil War. We wish you luck, Mr. Havice, with all your future endeavors.

The class of 1999 would like to say thanks to our new principal, Dr. Papagiotas, our vice-principal, Mr. Pesce, and especially our recently retired principal, Dr. Butler, for four wonderful years in high school, four years that will be difficult to say goodbye to. Although Dr. Papagiotas is a new addition to our school, she has made our senior year a success in preparing us for the future. Throughout our four years, we have learned to treat one another as equals. In doing so, we strive towards our greatest potential and overcome any obstacles which block our path. They have taught us many lessons that we will treasure for the rest of our lives and have given us an infinite number of precious memories that will remain forever in our hearts. We are not only the last class of this century to graduate, but also the most thankful class because we have had their influence in our lives. We thank them again, for not only doing their jobs as principals and vice-principal, but also for touching our hearts and leading us to the light of the future.

Always remember,
The class of 1999

It seems that time starts moving when you least expect it to. You have to live life to the fullest and grab on tight when chance presents itself.
High School has been great but it's time to move on. Bye to all my friends. I hope to see you all again sometime.I'd like to thank my parents and my family. I never could have done it without you. Good luck to everyone in the future. Class

DO THEY OWE US A LIVING? YES OF COURSE
THEY DO...AND I CAN SEE THE DISAPPROVAL IN YOUR EYES, THAT'S WHY
IT BOTHERS ME SO-THAT YOU ACT THE WAY YOU DO IN SPITE OF YOUR OWN
FEELINGS. HOW UNFORTUNATE IT IS THAT WHEN YOU SEE ME FALL YOU SMILE
INSTEAD OF HELP WHEN ON THE INSIDE
YOU'RE ONLY SCARED OF WHAT OTHERS MIGHT THINK. I'M SICK OF RUNNING, AND SICK OF JUST GETTING THROUGH IT. I'M
SICK OF IT ALL. ALL I WANT IS MY LIFE
BACK...DON'T EVER TELL ANYBODY
ANYTHING. IF YOU DO, YOU START
MISSING EVERYBODY.-SALINGER PEACE.

Once Upon A Time...

Baby Bird's Flight

The moment a bird hatches from its egg,
It enters a world of excitement and fright.
Along with all its brothers and sisters,
It begins to learn its trade of flight.

From its first little squeak
To when its wings are fully spread,
It has learned the fundamentals of life
And must retire from being led.

The final time has come
For it to spread its wings and fly;
To say "hello" to the new world
And to its dear nest, "goodbye."

Yet, one little bird is hesitant
To take off into the sky.
Looking up it sheds a tear
And this tear begins its cry...

"What if I take the short flight?
What if I take the long one?
What if I take the right flight?
What if I take the wrong one?"

Which flight is the easiest?

Which one is the hardest?
Which flight is the superficial?
Which one is the smartest?

What will I become?
What will I have missed?
Where shall I begin?
Please guide me, I insist."

"There now, little bird,"
Cries its mother from the nest,
"You will choose the flight that calls your name;
The one that fits you best."

And soon this little baby bird
Will have chosen its destiny flight.
"But, remember," cries its mother
As the bird flies out of sight.

"The home is where the nest is,
But one your flight you'll find the rest is.
So fly off into the sky of blue
And make all of your dreams come true."

Jul -

My memories of you as a child are full of...laughter, love your sweet little voice, your great big hugs and that beautiful smile that still lights up any room where ever you go.

I feel blessed to have such a beautiful daughter and best friend in my life. Any parent would be proud to call you theirs.

As one door is closed in your life, a new one opens before you. Pause briefly, have no regrets, smile and be proud of who you are.

I've always known, and others have been heard to say you are, "very special".

Your enthusiasm towards life and learning is truly admired by many.

Know the world is waiting for the goodness and the love you carry with you...Believe in Yourself...Make those dreams come true.

Dad and I thank God for the beautiful gift he has given to us. You.

All Our Love Forever -
Mom & Dad xxox

Julie, Thanks for being such a great big sister. You have always given me something to look up to. I am so proud of you. You have been there for me as a sister and as my friend. We will be friends forever.

Love,
Jaclyn

You've always made us smile. Now you make us proud. We have no doubt you will succeed in all that you do and will be the best you can be.

Dad, Mom, Amy

Dear T-N-T.

From the beginning we loved you both. Now, as the years have passed, personalities have developed and many memories cherished. So now, in 1999, we love you both even more. Good Luck and God Bless.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Rachel,
You are our sunshine.

Love,
Mom, Dad,
Jason

Amy,

You truly are a treasure. Best of luck in all you do. Always remember we love you.

Love - Mom and Dad

Julie,

Way to go! Thumbs up to you for all your hard work. We know your future is bright and full of excitement.

It's a wonderful life,
Brandon. Enjoy it.

Love,
April, Jessica,
Mom and Dad

Jon,

Live, love, and learn. Be happy in whatever you do. Congratulations! We love you.

Mom and Dad

Spen,

Your smile is a natural reflection of your easy going and happy spirit. You have given us much pride and joy as you've matured into a kind, caring and responsible young adult. You participated in a wide variety of activities and have enjoyed many accomplishments. Happiness means different things to different people. The journey of life will lead you to the threshold of many doors. Continue to be an independent thinker and follow your heart. These are the keys to a bright future.

Love - Mom and Dad

To the youngest in our family:

You have been a special addition from the beginning. Through the years, you have made all of us very proud. You are honest, sincere, competitive, and caring.

At this special time in your life, and always, we wish you happiness and success in all that you do.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Michael, Tom,
and Kevin

Zack,

You make your family so proud! You've grown from such a cute baby to a wonderful man. Enjoy life! Lots of our love!

Dad, Sarah, Seth,
Becky, Mom and all the babies

Rob,
When you were 5 school had begun. At first it was scary and then it was fun. Now you are a senior graduating at 18. And school life has become almost routine. You will soon enter college a new world with new sites. With faith, effort and determination you will soar to new heights

Love,
Mom, Dad, El, Sue, Eric
and Vinnie

Marianne,

God blessed us many years ago with you, now may he bless you and let your dreams come true... remember "The Power of a Dream." Give it all you've got!

All our Love,
Mom and Dad
Good Luck and Love,
Michele, Megan and Mike

To our Kristen (De De):

You should be very proud of yourself! We certainly are proud of you! Much has changed over the years as we have seen you grow into a happy, bright and mature young lady, who enjoys the laughter that life often brings. As you go forward from here we hope that some things won't change – your core values and the things that make you unique.

So be happy; be careful; be good – as “popeye” would say. Follow your heart and always remember how proud you have made us simply by being a “good kid.”

All our love,
Mom and Dad XO

Christine.

You have grown into a very fine person. We love you!

Dad, Mommy,

Congratulations! Dad, Mom, Ericka

Katie –

You were always a charmer. You've brought us seventeen years of pride and happiness. We'll always remember: “I wanna be a good girl”...The house is full of Girl Scout cookies...Katie, phone...another birthday party?...The cat's hungry...you really ate steamers?...How many friends do you have?...The list goes on. We wish you a world of happiness and success. We love you!

Jenny,
Between covers of our photo books, we save moments of the past – when you were just a youngster, days we thought would forever last. Every season, each in turn, we watched you laugh and play, with a love for you that grew with every passing day. As the world around you changes, and the old gives way to the new – The friends and school days of your youth will forever be a part of memories you will hold close within your heart. May all your hopes and dreams come true!

Love, Mom, Dad, Jason, Tim, & Stacie

young man. Oh, did we forget anything? We are so proud of you and love you very much.

Dad and Mom

Ever since you high jumped into our lives, we've tracked your progress with great pride. We love you very much. Aim high!

There it was, and what a time it was. Remember success is not defined by statistics, but what you hold in your heart. With that, I know you'll be successful... "We'll get together then, you know we'll have a good time then!"

Thanks for the support, for love, and the laughter.
